

HAPPY SUMMER!!!

It is time for summer reading!

The book that been chosen for the elementary students to read for the summer is Stuart Little by E.B. White.

You can purchase this book on Amazon, Barnes & Noble, or Books A Million.

Your child is required to read Stuart Little, which is a total of 131 pages. Your child is required to read a total of 1,000 pages for the summer. After reading Stuart Little, your child will have a total of 869 remaining pages to read to fulfill the reading goal.

Please see the attached Summer Reading BINGO sheet. Your child must also complete this BINGO sheet according to directions AND read a total of 1,000 pages in order to enjoy the Reading Celebration in August.

See directions on BINGO sheet.

OVERVIEW

- *Read Stuart Little
- *Complete the Summer Reading BINGO sheet per directions
- *Read a total of 1,000 pages
- *Reading Folders are to be turned in the first week of school in August.

HAPPY READING AND HAVE A GREAT SUMMER!!!

Your Elementary Teachers

SUMMER READING BINGO

Reader: _____

DIRECTIONS: Color in your FREE SPACE. Once you have completed a reading activity, please color in the picture that matches the activity you did while reading.

Also, log the book you read in your reading folder with the date, title of book, number of pages, and a parent(s) initials.

You must complete and color in 20 of the activities on this sheet as well as read 1,000 pages total to enjoy the summer reading celebration in August.

Read eating ice cream	Read outside	Read while on vacation	Read a book with a flashlight	Read to a stuffed animal
Read in your pajamas	Read with your sunglasses on	Read while eating your favorite snack	Read aloud in a silly voice	Read while having a picnic
Read when the sun is shining	Read a book about animals	FREE SPACE	Read a book full of adventure	Read to a relative over the phone
Read in another city or state	Read to a friend	Read to a pet	Read while eating breakfast	Read while eating a popsicle
Read on a rainy day	Read at bedtime	Read standing on one leg	Read to someone who is older than you	Read in your favorite place